

Frázová slovesa s come, go a get. Vyberte odpovídající částice.

- (come) across after along in off on out over through to
- 176) Next time, please knock before you come ___!
177) Come ___ [dvě možnosti]! I can't wait any longer. I'm in a hurry.
178) When you press this button, the red light should come ___.
179) I was tidying the attic when I came ___ these old diaries.
180) This pen's too dark. It comes ___ on the other side of the paper.
181) It rained all morning, but at lunchtime the sun came ___ from behind the clouds.
182) What letter comes ___ 'v' in the English alphabet?
183) This shirt needs mending. One of the buttons has come ___.
184) Could you come ___ to our place for lunch on Sunday?
185) We only had four glasses of wine, but the bill came ___ 280 crowns!

- (go) after by in off on out round through with without
- 186) I don't feel like staying at home tonight. Let's go ___.
187) The teacher asked them to be quiet, but they went ___ talking.
188) Well, we can't wait out here in the rain. Let's go ___.
189) I went ___ all the drawers and cupboards but I couldn't find the key anywhere.
190) My alarm clock didn't go ___ and I was late for school.
191) Do you think these blue curtains will go ___ the bedroom carpet?
192) As the weeks went ___ [dvě možnosti] Alice became more and more worried.
193) I suggest we go ___ breakfast and have an early lunch instead.
194) Love makes the world go ___.
195) Three policemen went ___ him, but they didn't catch him.

- (get) across behind in into off on out over through to
- 196) When I got ___ the post office it was closed.
197) Last Christmas I ate so much that in January I couldn't get ___ my new jeans!
198) He wasn't a bad swimmer, but the river was wide and he didn't get ___ to the other side.
199) You need more contact with the world. You should get ___ more often.
200) Martin and Roman used to be good friends, but they don't get ___ so well now.
201) We both drink a lot of coffee. We get ___ two big jars a month.
202) Last year I tried the entrance exams to the university, but I didn't get ___.
203) She's still very depressed about failing all those exams, but she'll get ___ it.
204) John is ill so often that he's really getting ___ at school.
205) Take the number 22 tram from here and get ___ at the National Theatre.

Frázová slovesa s take, look, run, put, turn, fall a bring. Vyberte odpovídající částice.

- (take) after for in off on out over to
- 206) Can't you take ___ those dirty shoes? I've just cleaned the floor.
207) Miloš is often taken ___ a native speaker of English. He doesn't even have an accent.
208) He takes ___ his father in both looks and character.
209) Did you know the company is going to be taken ___ [převzata] by an American firm next year?
210) I've lost a lot of weight. I'll have to take ___ this skirt a little.
211) A lot of shops take ___ extra staff for the busy period before Christmas.
212) She's so tired of him that she's taken ___ ignoring him.
213) I'm going to the bank. How much money do you think I should take ___ of my account?

- (look) after around for into out through to
- 214) What are you looking ___? Have you lost your wallet again?
215) Would you look ___ my cat while I'm on holiday?
216) My bedroom window looks ___ onto a lovely, green park.
217) She looked ___ to see if she recognized anyone in the room.
218) Would you look ___ my translation and tell me if there are any mistakes?
219) The police are looking ___ [vyšetřují] the case of the missing man.
220) Don't look ___ him for advice. He doesn't know anything about computers.

- (run) after around behind into off out over
- 221) We'd better hurry. Time's running ___.
222) I'm always running ___ for you. Why can't you do things yourself?
223) While I was swimming in the lake, someone ran ___ with all my clothes!
224) He lost control and the car ran ___ a low brick wall.
225) She almost ran ___ a cat on the journey to work yesterday.
226) He ran ___ her, but she was too fast for him.
227) We should move on to the next problem. We're already running ___ schedule.

- (put) across in off on out through
- 228) No one's free this Friday. We'll have to put ___ the trip till next weekend.
229) If Mrs Jenkins phones, could you put her ___ [přepojit] to me, please?
230) They're coming to put ___ the new computer system tomorrow morning.
231) She's changed, hasn't she? She's put ___ so much weight.
232) I think his latest film puts ___ this idea very well.
233) It took several hours for the fire brigade to put ___ the fire.

- (turn) into off out over round to
- 234) Don't turn ___ now, but I think someone's following us.
235) Turn ___ and go to sleep!
236) Are you sure you've lost it? Have you turned ___ all your pockets?
237) It's rather hot in here. Shall we turn the heating ___?
238) She was confused and didn't know who to turn ___ for help.
239) The princess kissed the frog and he turned ___ a handsome prince.

- (fall) behind in off out over through
- 240) Little Daniel fell ___ and hurt his knee.
241) He started the race well, but he soon fell ___.
242) Our holiday fell ___ last year because the travel agency collapsed.
243) When I picked up the vase one of its handles fell ___!
244) The building was weak structurally, and eventually the roof fell ___ [se propadla].
245) She can't keep friends. She's always falling ___ with people.

- (bring) along in on out round
- 246) Our publishing house is bringing ___ a new English dictionary next month.
247) Tourism is important in this country. It brings ___ a lot of money.
248) Yes, thanks. I'd love to come. Can I bring a friend ___ [s sebou] too?
249) She fainted in the heat, but after a few minutes we brought her ___ again.
250) A lot of his health problems have been brought ___ by overwork.