- Questions 6-10
- The people below all want to go to the cinema.
 - On the opposite page there are some film reviews.
 - Decide which film would be the most suitable for the following people.
 - For questions 6-10, mark the correct letter (A-H) on your answer sheet.

- 6 Paula works hard as a nurse and she likes films that help her to relax. She particularly likes films that make her laugh and she enjoys love stories as long as they have a happy ending.
- 7 Tony loves travelling and his favourite films are ones which show how real people live in different countries. He is more interested in the lives of ordinary people than in those of famous people.
- 8 Angela is not keen on films that are only entertainment and prefers those which have something interesting to say. She is a lawyer and likes films with a serious legal or social theme.
- 9 Mark is an art student. He would like to make animated films for children and so he watches lots of cartoon films. His special favourites are those which are based on folk tales and traditional stories.
- 10 Suniti is very interested in history and likes films which show important historical characters and events. Films like that help her to understand the past and to see its connections with the present.

WHAT'S ON THIS WEEK?

- A MARY AND THE WOLF
This is a story which will be familiar to everyone, the tale of the little girl who meets a wolf as she walks through the woods to take food to her grandmother. The story may be old but the film is up-to-date. The computer graphics are superb. This one will be enjoyed by all the family.
- B MARTHAS STORY
This film is about a talented woman from a poor Australian family who has an important job in a multinational company. She doesn't enjoy her job and leaves to set up a youth centre for young people from poor backgrounds. She uses her business contacts to help and finds personal happiness in the process.
- C SEVEN BROTHERS
This traditional aboriginal tale is little known outside Australia, but its themes are universal. The acting is superb, although it is the first film appearance of all the main actors. Some memorable songs and beautiful camerawork combine to make this a certain box office hit.
- D THE FIRST AND SIXTH
After many years of fighting between the English and the Scots, the English Queen Elizabeth I died and her nearest relative was King James of Scotland. James I of England and VI of Scotland was a man of contrasts and this film paints a powerful picture of a little-known but important period of British history.
- E BORN TO BE FREE
This is another comedy in the popular series about four students sharing a London flat. The original three, Dave, Sue and Pat, are joined by Hiroshi, a Japanese post-graduate student. Hiroshi's romantic relationship with the girl next door provides some tender moments in a feel-good film which the whole family will enjoy.
- F THE FRENCH PRESIDENT'S WOMAN
This story is fictional but you will leave the cinema wondering if it is based on a true story. It presents a dramatic picture of life in the presidential palace with its political and romantic intrigues. An expert in French politics may notice a number of factual mistakes but the story is exciting and powerful.
- G ALL MY LOVE
This story is a classic tale of love and passion. Two beautiful young people fall in love despite the differences in their background and their parents' opposition. The story is told with humour and sympathy but the unexpectedly tragic ending will have the audience in tears.
- H SUNRISE OVER THE MOUNTAINS
The film was shot in Peru and it focuses on a group of villagers whose daily life has changed little over the past thousand years. The plot involves the attempts of a multinational company to build a factory nearby. The storyline is weak but the film gives a powerful and moving impression of life in rural Peru.

Big Ben English Language Centre

Location

The Big Ben English Language Centre offers courses to students of English at all levels. It is situated in St Martin's Cove, a delightful small seaside town in a sunny Southwest of England. The school is a magnificent eighteenth-century building with views of the sea. Students may choose either to live in student accommodation in the school or with host families, where they can learn more about the language and culture by sharing English family life.

Nightlife in St Martin's Cove is lively with a number of excellent restaurants. There are two cinemas, a small but attractive theatre and many sports facilities. There is one nightclub in the town and visitors make the 150-mile journey from London to enjoy its special atmosphere and top-class entertainment.

Language Courses

Courses are offered on a weekly basis and consist of five hours study per day. You can start on any Monday and stay for as many weeks as you wish. Most students find it useful to spend at least three weeks with us and discounts are offered for courses of three weeks or more.

Classes range from beginners to advanced. Maximum class size is 12 students and one-to-one lessons are also available for those who would like a more individualised programme. Before students arrive at the school we ask them to take a test which helps us to choose the best possible class for them.

The school has an excellent multimedia library and computer area with a range of materials for students to work on in their free time. Student access to the Internet is available at any time. We offer a first-class evening programme of lectures, films and social activities, mostly free of charge.
