A Memorable Day

- 0 It was certainly the greatest day in my life so that far.
00 The car was loaded with everything that I could 41 possibly need, and at eight o'clock we were being ready 42 to leave. I was going to university. The drive to 43 my new town was not a very long but I felt as if 44 I was moving hundreds of miles away. I had no idea
45 what my new life it would be like, but I was determined
46 to have the best time I could. I was the first of person
47 to arrive at the place where my room was in. It was not 48 a particularly attractive building, and the room wasn't 49 as though comfortable as it might have been. Nevertheless, 50 I fell in the love with my room immediately. Even in its 51 emptiness it had a so special atmosphere which I knew would 52 improve further once I had made it my own one. Every 53 few minutes I rushed out into the corridor to see if anyone else
54 had arrived. Soon the whole building was full up of talk and laughter, 55 and I was meeting the people I would spend on the next year with.
