A Day on the Slopes

- 0 I was really to excited when we set off for our day
- 00 on the slopes. The journey through the mountains
- 41 was fabulous. On our arrival our instructor he told us
- 42 to get skis and put them on. This is the easier said than done.
- 43 I had to ask two other people to help me
- 44 get into the boots. We did looked totally out of place
- 45 with our woolly jumpers and leggings. Everyone else was
- 46 in proper ski-wear. We eventually reached at the
- 47 so-called nursery slope. There were a little kids moving
- 48 past us, making us to look even more stupid, as we tried
- 49 desperately to maintain our balance and remain upright.
- 50 My hour on the slope was spent mostly in picking
- 51 myself up again and again. Eventually, I had to be
- 52 carried off as I did it the unforgivable and fell forward.
- 53 I stumbled to the ski lift and had to have my leg get bandaged.
- 54 It was mildly embarrassing to say at the least. Anyway,
- 55 I really enjoyed being there and watching the others.
