Part 3

Questions 14 - 19

You will hear a woman talking to a group of people during a very special visiting day at Fairfield Hospital. For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space.

FOUR-FOOTED FRIENDS VISITING DAY AT FAIRFIELD HOSPITAL

Background

Visits by dogs can make patients feel less alone and less frightened. It gives the patients something to (14) to.

Dogs make patients feel better. Even discouraged patients look happier when they see their dog (15)

Training Programme

Our visiting dogs are trained to become familiar with the unusual sights, sounds and (16) of hospitals.

They are also trained to (17) things for patients (such as toys, TV (18) and cases for glasses).

Our dogs cannot visit a real hospital until they are taught these skills at our special college.

The common sense

Volunteers should always make sure that their patients are not (19) to dogs.
